(Source – Vahan Portal). The B2C businesses contributed 49% to the overall revenues in this quarter, reflecting the success of the diversification strategy. Despite facing headwinds and regulatory challenges, our Company remains steadfast in its commitment to finding innovative solutions for sustained growth.

Commenting on the Company's Q1, FY24 performance, Mr Nagesh Basavanhalli, Non-Executive Vice Chairman of Greaves Cotton Limited, said, "We have taken significant steps in progressing towards becoming a full-stack ecosystem player focused on democratising sustainable mobility. Our growth stems from our dedicated team and strategic investments in clean technology, product innovation, and design. The acquisition with Excel Controlinkage has led to growth and enhanced capabilities, and our recent majority stake acquisition in MLR presents a valuable opportunity to strengthen our position in the 3-wheeler market. This also aligns with our strategy of focusing on sustainable margin improvement."
